She told the story of searching the God by Narendranath Datta, a young and intelligent scholar who wanted to search for God. During his search, he met numerous wise men but none of them were able to satiate his curious mind. Finally, he met a mystical yogi named Sri Ramakrishna Paramhansa at Dakshineswar. "Sir, have you seen God?" was the first question young Narendranath asked Ramakrishna. Ramakrishna promptly replied, "Yes, I have seen God. I see Him as I see you here, only more clearly. God can be seen. One can talk to him. This meeting proved to be a turning point in the life of Narendranath. Although Narendranath had met so many preachers and followers of God, he could not find a single person who would claim that he had "Seen" Him. Narendranath was so impressed with this meeting that he started visiting Ramakrishna daily. However, after a few visits, Narendranath told Sri Ramakrishna Paramhansa that he might be monomaniac and that is what made him imagine that there was a God to whom he was talking. Paramhansa just smiled and suddenly placed his right foot on Narendranath's chest and provided him with a glimpse of His supreme vision which had left Narendranath in a trance. Thus, started his journey from Narendranath to Swami Vivekananda.

She also talked about his visit to Chicago- Swami Vivekananda gave message of spiritual unison and creating new consciousness amongst youth. Swami Vivekananda represented India and consequently, Hindu Dharma in a world conference was held in Chicago for all religions in the year of 1893. Swami Vivekananda gave a message of spiritual unity to the world in this conference. He also emphasized that along with spiritual progress, materialistic / worldly progress was equally important. Swami Vivekananda's guidance helped to generate new consciousness and enthusiasm amongst the youth. Swami Vivekananda awakened patriotism and enthusiasm amongst people through spiritual discourses.

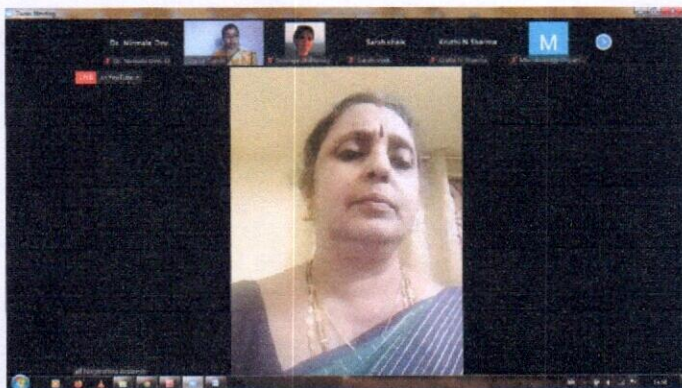

Among the various ways which Swami Vivekananda suggested to rebuild the Indian Society, Education was the primary means for empowering the people. He once said, "The education which does not help the common mass of people to equip themselves for the struggle for life, which does not bring out strength of character, a spirit of philanthropy, and the courage of a lion- is it worth the name? Real education is that which enables one to stand on one's own legs." For him, education meant secular learning that built character and instilled human values in students. And as Swami Vivekananda once exhorted, "Arise ! Awake ! And stop not till the goal is reached", let us all unite for the country with Purity, Patience and Perseverance as the Swami felt long ago.
