The guest speaker, Dr. Vani and the Vice Principal, professor Jayaram were honoured with a bouquet of flowers each. The lecture was opened by a few visionary words from the Vice Principal professor Jayaram, wishing the guest best of luck for the lecture.

In the lecture, the speaker gave a brief introduction to the emergency declared in 1975 by Indira Gandhi, which gave birth to fundamental duties of the citizens of India. It was an emergency where the rights of citizens were suspended, due to internal disturbances, Late Sri. Indira Gandhi felt the need to lay down the fundamental duties of the citizens of India by appointing Swaran singh committee.

As the lecture advanced, knowledge about each fundamental duty was explained, and when they were amended into the constitution of India. She quoted” P.V.Karne’s comment on how the Indian government was blindly following the western governance affected by the British rule”.

The Article 51 (a) contains the 11 fundamental duties of the citizens of India. At the beginning there were 6 duties which were increased by 4 more duties and finally we have the last one added according to the 86th Amendment Act.

The criticisms against the fundamental duties were also explained such as:

Vague ideas, fundamental duties not justiciable through the court of Law, few duties that was not mentioned (example: paying taxes, duty to vote, ensure we follow and practice family planning programme).

The fundamental duties are only applicable to the citizens of India where as the fundamental rights are applicable to all the citizens of India and the foreigners.

The session ended with the vote of thanks by Miss.Sushma from the department of Commerce. As a memorandum the guest, along the faculty and the students took a photograph.

Outcome: The seminar was interactive, interesting and while enjoying their rights, the citizens should also be conscious of the duties they owe to their country, society and their fellow citizens

This session was a huge success. This event aimed to help students understand about gender equality. Dr.AnitaPatil spoke about gender equality, women rights, discrimination and sexual harrasment of women etc. She spoke very well about these issues by explaining legal provisions of the constitution. She also spoke about ICC-Internal complaint committee, which has to be created or set up in every Schools, colleges, working places and about NCW- National commission for women, Daughter's right in Coparcenary property etc.

The session was attended by more Than 100 students from different departments. At last Dr..Anilapatil conducted an activity which taught a lesson that families involve girls in very less thing like in any decision making, opinion etc than boys. Thus , over all,the session was helpful for the Students specially, for girls.

Outcome: The seminar was interactive, interesting and while enjoying their rights, helpful in promoting personal growth and empathy among individuals

They also checked the height and weight of the students whether they have the correct weight and height according to their age. They also gave suggestions on how to balance their mood during the hormonal changes. The session was very interactive and enthusiastic students also shared their experiences in the session.

Outcomes:

1. To create awareness about how to overcome the mental health during the menstrual cycles.
2. Suggested the physical activities to overcome the hormonal imbalances in the body.
