About College

Ramaiah Institutions were established in 1962 by our founder Dr. MS Ramaiah to bridge the gap in the education system. He founded a galaxy of institutions: Medical, Engineering, Pharmacy, Dental, Hotel Management, Arts, Science and Commerce and has truly enhanced the world for the better. Dr. M. S Ramaiah, a gifted visionary, created the ideal launch pad for successful careers with the establishment of Ramaiah College of Arts, Science and Commerce (RCASC) at the Undergraduate and Post Graduate levels. The college is reaccredited with "a" Grade in third cycle by NAAC and is permanently affiliated to Bangalore City University. It has produced several rank holders and has alumni in distinguished institutions all over the world. The College has a legacy of organizing National Conferences and workshops in various disciplines of Science, Commerce and Management in addition to Quality Initiatives in Higher Education.

About Department

The Department of Commerce was started in the year 1994 with student strength of 22 and at present with strength around 600. Students from various states in India and other countries are studying in the department. The department has well qualified and experienced faculty in teaching, most of the staff members have research qualification to their credit. The department has spacious classrooms with modern furniture. The Department of Commerce has been a vibrant department with staff members who are dedicated and committed to the needs of the students. Hence students aspire to get admitted in the department to enjoy the best of both the academic ambience of the MSRCASC campus and the humane curricular exercises giving enough scope for the development of their personality. The curriculum is given effect to by a distinguished team of faculty combining academic excellence and real-world experience. The outcome of this effort can be seen in the form of placements in reputed MNC's, financial institutions and other sectors.

Objective

To Sensitise, familiarise and educate all the faculty members about the relevant provisions of the RTI Act, Policy Planning etc.

Outcome

This Program helps faculties to empower, encourage transparency and accountability in governmental operations, fight corruption, and ensure that our democracy actually serves the needs of the people.

Ramaiah College of Arts, Science and Commerce was established in 1994 by our founder Late Dr.. M S Ramaiah offering both undergraduate and postgraduate degrees affiliated to Bangalore City University in Arts, Science and Commerce and Management streams. The college is approved by AICTE, New Delhi, recognized by the Government of Karnataka. This program aims to enhance the knowledge and understanding of faculty members regarding the provisions, significance, and implementation of the Right to Information (RTI) Act.

Objectives:

- a) To familiarize faculty members with the key provisions and objectives of the RTI Act.
- b) To enhance the understanding of faculty members about the importance and implications of the right to information in a democratic society.
- c) To equip faculty members with the necessary skills to effectively access and utilize information under the RTI Act.

Department Of Commerce in association with IQAC organised one day Faculty Development Program on 'The Issues & Challenges of Right to Information Act 2005. The Session started with the Ramaiah Anthem. Ms.Sunitha Gurukar, Assistant Professor , Department of Commerce introduced the Resource Person. Ms.Sindhu M, Assistant Professor welcomed the audience and the Resource Person. followed by Principal Dr. Vatsala G, delivered the presidential address. Later the resource person Prof. Dr. Sairam Bhatt took over the session.

The program covered the following key topics:

- a) Introduction to the Right to Information Act: Understanding the background, objectives, and scope of the RTI Act.
- b) Provisions of the RTI Act: Detailed analysis of the provisions, exemptions, and limitations of the Act.
- c) Accessing Information: Exploring the procedures and mechanisms for accessing information under the RTI Act.
- d) Role of Faculty in Promoting Right to Information: Discussing the responsibilities and opportunities for faculty members in advocating and utilizing the right to information.
- e) Case Studies and Best Practices: Examining real-life case studies and examples of successful implementation of the RTI Act.
- f) Interactive Sessions: The resource person provided opportunity for all the participants to clarify their doubts on Rights To Information Act 2005.

Outcomes and Benefits:

The Faculty Development Program on the Right to Information Act resulted in several positive outcomes and benefits, including:

- a) Enhanced awareness and understanding: Participants gained a comprehensive understanding of the RTI Act, its provisions, and its significance in promoting transparency and accountability.
- b) Improved skills: Participants acquired practical skills in filing RTI applications, interpreting responses, and utilizing the information obtained.
- c) Integration of RTI in teaching: Faculty members developed strategies and methodologies to incorporate the RTI Act and related concepts into their teaching, research, and discussions with students.
- d) Network building: The program facilitated networking among participants and created opportunities for collaboration and knowledge sharing in the field of right to information.
- e) Increased advocacy: Faculty members were motivated to actively promote the right to information within the academic community and beyond.

The session wound up with the vote of thanks by Ms.Roopa H S, Head Of Department -Commerce. The resource person was honored by the college with momentum.
