Report of Competitive Examination Session (K-SET and UGC NET)

Event Date: January 9, 2024

Department: Department of Commerce - M. Com

Number of Participants: 28 Students

On January 9, 2024, an insightful session on competitive exams, specifically focusing on K-Set and UGC NET, was conducted at Ramaiah College of Arts, Science, and Commerce. The event, organized by the Department of Commerce - M. Com, attracted the active participation of 28 enthusiastic students eager to explore the world of competitive examinations.

Professor Samuel, a distinguished faculty member from the Department of Commerce - M. Com, spearheaded the session. In simple and accessible language, Prof. Samuel elucidated the intricacies of both K-Set and UGC NET, providing students with a comprehensive understanding of these examinations.

The session commenced with Prof. Samuel introducing the importance of competitive exams in shaping academic and professional trajectories. He highlighted the significance of K-Set (Karnataka State Eligibility Test) and UGC NET (National Eligibility Test) as benchmarks for eligibility in teaching and research roles.

Prof. Samuel further delved into the exam patterns, syllabi, and preparation strategies for both K-Set and UGC NET. He shared valuable insights, tips, and resources to aid students in their preparation journey. The interactive nature of the session allowed students to pose queries and seek clarification on various aspects of the competitive exams.

In conclusion, the session on competitive exams proved to be a valuable initiative, equipping M. Com students with essential knowledge and resources to embark on their K-Set and UGC NET preparation. The Department of Commerce reaffirms its commitment to providing holistic guidance to students, ensuring their success in academic pursuits and beyond.
