

From the HOD's Desk

Dear MSRCASC Community,
I want to express my gratitude for your incredible commitment and perseverance throughout this academic year.

I commend our dedicated faculty for their exceptional teaching and support, and our students for their resilience and determination.

Our staff members have also played a vital role in keeping our department running smoothly.

As we look back on our achievements and milestones, let's take a moment to celebrate. I encourage you to rest, reflect, and prepare for the future. Thank you for your continued support and engagement. Together, we will continue to achieve great things.

Dr. Ganesh Naika
HOD - Humanities

Highlights

Inside this Issue

- Guest Lectures
- National Youth Parliament - 2023
- Mindsparks - 2023
- Paper Presentations
- Azadika Amrit Mahotsav
- International Day Against Nuclear Test
- Student Testimonials

Quarter - 1

January to March

Guest Lectures

The department organized guest lectures featuring notable speakers, Mr. S. Mohammed Ashraque from Alliance University and Ms. Jahnavi from The Hindu. These guest lectures offered students a valuable opportunity to delve into the world of journalism, networking, gaining insights into the latest trends, challenges, and opportunities within the field.

The presence of prominent personalities enriched the learning experience, allowing students to broaden their understanding of the industry and its dynamic nature. The guest lectures provided an interactive platform for students to engage with industry professionals, ask questions, and gain practical knowledge that can further inspire their pursuit of a career in journalism.

Mr. S. Mohammed Ashraque

Ms. Jahnavi

Quarter - 2

April to June

Student Centric Department events

National Youth Parliament - 2023

The Department of Humanities with the approval of the Ministry of Parliamentary affairs, Government of India organised the National Youth Parliament in the campus for all students. It provided a common platform and foster for a healthy discussion on political reforms, parliamentary activities, policymaking, education and employment.

Mindsparks - 2023

The Department of Humanities hosted a dynamic psychology fest with the objective of promoting awareness about various mental health issues through enjoyable paper-pen tests. The event included a range of engaging activities tailored exclusively for students and staff to explore different topics within psychology. The feedback received from attendees was overwhelmingly positive, with students expressing enthusiasm and enjoyment as they embraced their passion for the subject matter.

Student Elections- 2023

Student elections in the department is an opportunity for students to exercise their right to vote and choose their representatives. The elections are a platform for students to showcase their leadership skills, communication abilities and vision for the department.

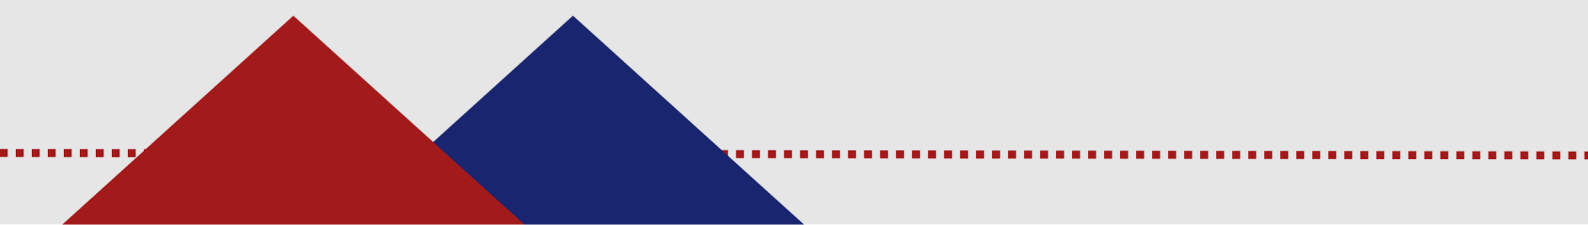

The winners of the election become the Junior HeadGirl, Junior HeadBoy , Headboy and Headgirl.

The department believes in conducting student election every academic year.

Quarter -3

July to September

Paper Presentations

Our students have achieved a significant milestone by presenting their academic papers at prestigious universities. This remarkable opportunity allows them to showcase their research findings and contribute to the academic community on a broader scale. Presenting at other universities not only demonstrates the caliber of our students' work but also establishes connections with scholars from different institutions. It encourages collaboration, fosters intellectual growth, and nurtures a spirit of academic excellence.

Through these presentations, our students gain valuable insights, receive constructive feedback, and enhance their communication skills. Such accomplishments highlight the dedication, perseverance, and intellectual prowess of our students, positioning them as future leaders in their respective fields.

Paper presentation in St. Claret College - June 2023

Azadika Amrit Mahotsav

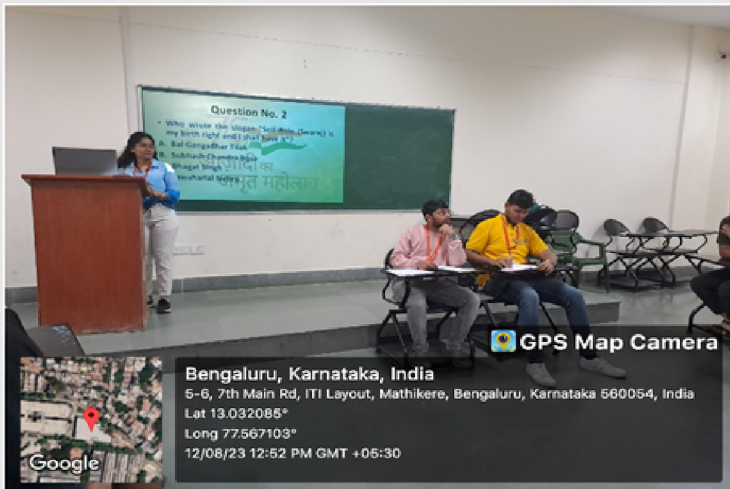

The Department of Humanities and the Institution's Innovation Cell (IIC) organized various activities to celebrate Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. This is an initiative by the Government of India to celebrate and commemorate 75 years of independence and the glorious history of its people, culture, and achievements. As part of the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, the Department of Humanities and the Institution's Innovation Cell (IIC) on the instruction of the MoE's Innovation Cell and the Ministry of Education, Government of India, organised a Quiz competition, poster making and pick 'n' speech competitions for the students on 12/08/2023, 14/08/2023 and 16/08/2023 respectively.

Objectives:

The objective of the event was to make the students learn and understand the values and ideals that inspired our freedom movement. Also to educate them about the rich and glorious culture of India.

Outcomes:

- 1) To understand the Indian history of the freedom movement
- 2) To understand the glorious history of Indian people, culture, and achievements
- 3) To develop speaking skills
- 4) To develop creative thinking and extensive reading and research.

The quiz competition was organised in room no 304 on 12/08/2023 in four rounds. The first was the elimination round to get qualify for the final round. The six teams qualified for the final round and it was conducted in four categories.

The second competition i.e. poster making was organised on 14/08/2023 in Vishweshwaraiah Auditorium.

The theme for the poster making was “Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav” and informed the participants to prepare the posters on their choice of sub-theme based on the main theme of the event. The pick ‘n’ speech was organised on 16/08/2023 in the Vishweshwaraiah Auditorium. the topics were on Indian history, culture, politics, society, etc. Provided 15 minutes for the preparation for the participants after they picked topics. On the last day of the event prizes and certificates were issued to the winners.

International Day Against Nuclear Test

The Department of Humanities organized a guest lecture in association with Dr Karamala Areesh Kumar, Assistant Professor and Head of Department, International Relations, Peace and Public Policy, St. Joseph's University, Bangalore as a resource person on the occasion of International Day Against Nuclear Tests on 29th August 2023 at 11:00 AM in Vishweshwaraiah Auditorium.

The guest lecture was open to all streams of UG and PG to attend. The students enthusiastically participated in the discussion. Our students and faculty members gained valuable insights about Nuclear Tests, International organization and Geopolitics.

Student Testimonials

"From sharing notes to sharing minds,
everything has its corrections."

- Ms. Gnyapana Kokate

"Never thought I'll find happiness so easily.
It's not just a college,
it's Heaven."

- Mr. MS Jayasimha Rao

"College feels like home, embraces you when you fall, lifts you up, and lets you fly again."

- Ms. Sarvani B

Roll of Appreciation

Ms. Sharanya U, Assistant Professor- Journalism
Ms. Ashritha Sri R, Assistant Professor- Journalism
Shwetha AT, II BA
Diya Varma, II BA
Seeya Shree J, II BA
Hifzur Rahman, II BA
Sreesh CS, IV BA
MS Jayasimha Rao, IV BA
Shiva Skanda, IV BA

For any queries contact

Department of Humanities

MS Ramaiah College of Arts, Science, and Commerce

Mathikere
Bengaluru - 560054